Reach Out and Touch Somebody's Hand

Make this world a better place if you can

If you can just try
Take a little time of a busy day
To give encouragement to someone who has lost the way

Would I be talking to a stone
If I asked you to share some love that's not your own

We can change things
If we start giving

Why don't you reach out
Make this world a better place

and touch somebody's hand
if you can

Two separate personalities but always working as one to help us through our most trying time — Freshman year.
Two who presented nursing in it's true light —
hard work, study, and dedication.

Always a smile and willing to lend a hand.
We gratefully dedicate our yearbook
to you.

Mrs. Kathleen Ingram and Mrs. Joyce Isenhour

A winning smile
A warm heart
A welcome hand . . .

Junior and Senior Class advisor, and the big job of annual staff advisor.
To one who has always worked with us. Her door is always open to everyone.
To a friend as well as a teacher. To someone we all love and shall remember.
We do sincerely appreciate you,

MRS. BESSIE MYRICK

SENIORS

Yesterday's babies are tomorrow's nurses

Sherry Tickle Bowen

If you want to be happy,
Begin where you are,
Don't wait for some rapture,
That's future and far.
Begin to be joyous, begin to be glad
And soon you'll forget
That you were ever sad.

Joanne Dawn Bullock

I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something; and what I should do and can do, by the Grace of God I will do.

Jackie Lanier Comer

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; the courage to change the things I can; and the wisdom to know the difference.

Pamela Jean Cranfill

Keep ascending the mountain of cheerfulness by daily scattering seeds of kindness along the way as best you can, and, should mist hide the mountaintop, continue undaunted and you will reach the sun-tipped heights in your own life experience.

Sharon Teter Dark

A smile is Cheer to you and me
The cost is nothing — it's given free
Its comforts the weary — gladdens the sad
Consoles those in trouble — good or bad
To rich and poor — beggar or thief
It's free to all of any belief
A natural gesture of young and old
Cheers on the faint — disarms the bold
Unlike most blessings for which we pray
It's one thing we keep when we give it away.

June Ann Draughn

We may give without loving, but we cannot love without giving.

Let us be the first to give a friendly sign, to nod first, smile first, and — if such a thing is necessary — forgive first.

Emma Ruth Hellinger

Happiness consists not in possessing much, but in being content with what we now possess. He who wants little always has enough.

Peggy Joyce Hundley

Beatrice Long Idol

A thousand words cannot replace
A gentle smile; a kind embrace.
For words could never say as much
As one sincere and tender touch.

Each new day is an opportunity to start all over again . . . to cleanse our minds and hearts anew and to clarify our vision. And let us not clutter up today with the leavings of other days.

Emma Rebecca Israel

Ida Lynn Parham

Let us strive to give and share
And forget ourself a bit,
As happiness is not in having
But in sharing some of it.

Be a lamp in the chamber if you cannot be a star in the sky.

Charlene Williams Reece

Nan Penny Robbins

The way to be happy is to make others happy.

Wanda Miller Stone

Creation of woman from the rib of man: She was not made of his head to top him; nor out of his feet to be trampled upon by him; under his arm, to be protected; and near his heart to be beloved.

A NEW LOOK FOR THE PILOT.

1972. The year Pilot goes over the 6 billion dollar mark in insurance in force. And what the figures say about the strength of our company is restated graphically in the new look of the Pilot logo. Yes, the Pilot has changed. Bolder, simpler, and more rugged, the new look gives fresh force to the qualities the Pilot at the Wheel has symbolized for the past years: vigor, dependability, and strength. It's the well-known image, updated. We believe it will speak more directly than ever before to the over 5¼ million people who look to the Pilot for protection.
